ORIGIN / NOTES

Kristina Harker is the driver, pilot, and trusted confidante of world-renowned archaeologist Arizona Davis. An independent truck driver and charter pilot, Kristina Harker races cars on the independent circuit seasonally in her spare time.

A 5-foot-10-inch Amazon, Kristina Harker is as tough as nails in her own right. Not surprisingly, her skills and fearlessness make her invaluable during Arizona Davis's wondrous, and equally dangerous, adventures.

Despite her strength and skills, though, Kristina Harker has an unusual habit of getting stuck or captured by one of Arizona Davis's rivals on these excursions.
